Chicago House Youth Feel the Beat!

Chicago House youth are in for a musical adventure as Carlos A. Cornier rolls out percussion instruction sponsored by the A.N. and Pearl G. Barnett Family Foundation. This sponsorship will support the Bridges Program which provides academic support to our young people. Chicago House is partnering with The Old Town School of Folk Music to bring this 10 week program which incorporates a medley of African, Latin, and Caribbean beats. This program will enhance the academic and personal growth of our young people through involvement in the performing arts.

Your support of Chicago House, and youth programs like these help to enrich the maturity and self confidence of these young people, preparing them for a lifetime of success. Together we're able to break the cycle of illness, poverty, and despair through safe and secure housing and support services while exposing them to the profound joys of the performing arts.
