Follow Chicago House on Twitter! NBC 5 to feature Chicago House on "The Color of AIDS" series

All week this week, in commemoration of National Black HIV Awareness Day, NBC 5 is airing a week-long series of reports called "The Color of AIDS" that highlight the disproportionate number of African-Americans and Latinos affected by the disease. The reports will air at 5 am and 5 pm.

NBC 5 interviewed Evany Turk, Peer Coordinator of the PASHN medication adherence program at Chicago House. Her segment airs Friday, February 12th.

The week-long campaign culminates with a fundraiser on Friday, February 12th, at the Parkway Ballroom, at 4455 South King Drive in Chicago.

All proceeds benefit The AIDS Foundation of Chicago and their partner service organizations, including Chicago House.
