Family Support Program Program Outcomes (FY 2015– FY 2016)

©CHICAGO HOUSE

The Family Support Program is a supportive housing program that provides comprehensive support services to families impacted by HIV/AIDS. Our goal is to improve family members' health, mental health and family functioning, as well as their educational and employment outcomes.

Demographics

Gender

Male 51% Female 47% Transgender 2%

Race/Ethnicity

African-American	84%
Asian	12%
White	2%
Mixed	2%

Age

18 &under	46%
19-30	16%
31-45	18%
46-60	20%
60+	0%

51
Individuals served in 18 Households

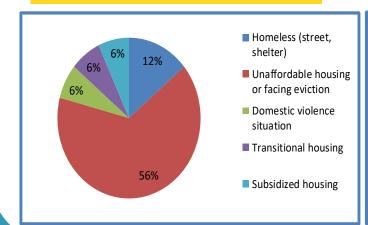

Case Management HIV/Medical Life Skills Tenant support Youth Services Counseling After school Individual & tutoring Support Family Support Summer programming Arts & music enrichment Services Gröups Substance Use Support Education & Job Support Resume building and job search College linkage & GED tutoring

100% low or no income at entry	100% with chronic illness
50% with mental health diagnosis	28% with substance use history

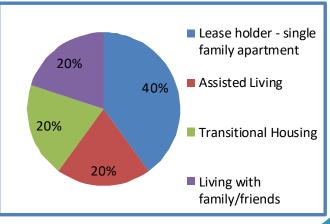

Place of Birth

72% Foreign- born 28% U.S.- born 100% maintained stable housing 76% remained at FSP 24% transitioned to community living

Housing Status at Intake

Housing Status at Discharge

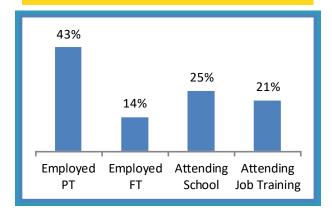

Family Support Program Program Outcomes (FY 2015– FY 2016)

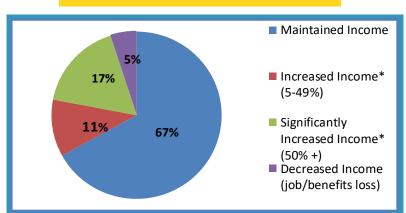

©CHICAGO HOUSE

Adult Employment & Education

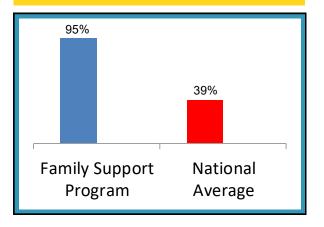

Household Income

* Clients increased income via job change, promotion, and/or increased work hours

For more information, please contact:

HIV/Health Outcomes

100% accessed HIV medical care

95% maintained suppressed viral load Compared with 39% national average of HIV + individuals in supportive housing

Mental Health and Counseling

45%

of residents engaged in individual therapy 100%

in therapy reported improvement in ability to manage stress & emotions

100%

of those with substance use history engaged with substance use counselor

"I love living at the Family Support Program because it gives my family a safe and clean place to live, and we have structure for the first time in our lives."

- FSP Resident, Single father of two

Emily Ptacek, LCSW, Manager of Residential Clinical Services Email: eptacek@chicagohouse.org Phone: 773.248.5200 ext. 300